SONG 151
HE WILL CALL
(Job 14: 13 - 15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

1. Bí ìrì òwúrò lẹmí wa rí,
Tó bá dọsán yóò pòórá.
Téèyàn bá kú, ó ti dẹni àná,
Ẹkún, òsẹ yóò tẹ lée.
Tí èèyàn bá kú, ẹ́ ó tún lẹ jí?

SONG 139 SEE YOURSELF WHEN ALL IS NEW (Revelation 21: 1-5)

1. Just see yourself, just see
me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly
free.
No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.
The time will have come for a new earthly start,
The song of our praises
will pour out from our heart:

(CHORUS)

"We thank you, our God, for all you have done.
All things are new by the rule
of your Son.
The fullness of our heart
overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise
to you belong."

2. Now see yourself, and see
me too;
And look ahead to a world
that is new.
No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.
He now will awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join ours with ev'ry grateful breath:

(CHORUS)

"We thank you, our God, for
all you have done.
All things are new by the rule
of your Son.
The fullness of our heart
overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise
to you belong."

BIOGRAPHY of

BROTHER JULIUS OLADIMEJI OMOWAYE

August 2, 1934 - February 15, 2026

Early Life

Julius Oladimeji Omowaiye, fondly known as “Daddy Ojota or “Baba”, was born on August 2, 1934, in Akure, Ondo State, Nigeria, into a family deeply rooted in service to Jehovah. He was the second child of Pa Ebenezer and Mrs Ebenezer Omowaiye. They were both devoted and dedicated servants of Jehovah, with Late Pa Ebenezer Omowaiye serving as a city overseer in Akure and among the pioneers who brought the truth according to God’s word - the Bible- to Akure town.

Pa Julius Omowaiye’s father and mother were blessed with three children: Omotola Adeboye (deceased), Obafemi Omowaiye (deceased), and Joseph Omowaiye (deceased). After the passing of his mother, his father remarried, and the family grew. Baba’s upbringing and experience growing up helped shape him into a resilient, responsible, and deeply compassionate person who deeply valued spiritual things, family, and unity.

Work and Accomplishments

From a young age, Baba showed a natural gift and interest in building construction. After his basic education, he went on to learn civil and structural construction at Awomolo Construction Company in Ibadan. He became well known for his ability to look at complex building plans, understand them deeply, and deduce how to build a strong and safe structure.

Pa Julius Omowaiye began his career working alongside expatriates from Germany in the construction industry for about three years. In 1973, with courage and determination, he started his own company. Through diligence, dedication, and tenacity, he became the CEO of J. Ola Omowaiye & Brothers Limited and J. Ola Omowaiye & Sons Limited. His work was marked by excellence, integrity, and a strong sense of accomplishment.

Marriage and Family

Pa Julius Omowaiye married the love of his life, Mojisola Omowaiye on 15th June 1969. Their marriage was filled with love, friendship, respect, joy, and a shared dedication and loyalty to Jehovah. As a loving husband, Julius Omowaiye was hardworking, humble, loving, and deeply caring. He was a generous provider who always put his family first, and he was known for his hospitality and willingness to help others. He was intelligent, thoughtful, and always ready to teach and guide.

A Loving Father and Friend

Pa Julius Omowaiye's children describe him as approachable, loving, protective, and a good listener who always tried to understand things from their point of view. "Daddy", as he was fondly called by his children, was firm when needed and not afraid to speak the truth. In addition, he was always kind, discerning, and fair to all. Furthermore, Baba also lovingly cared for many family members, including cousins, nieces, and nephews, just like his own children. They fondly describe him as a mentor, pillar of support, and good father with a good heart.

Pa Julius Omowaiye also adopted as spiritual daughters Titilayo Joel (nee Salako), Tosin Adekunle (nee Salako), Mojisola Ekpenyong and Nehocia Jacquet, whom he lovingly gave the Yoruba name 'Arinola Omopariola'. They all described Baba as a very understanding, caring father who offered advice with compassion.

His Character

Pa Julius Omowaiye had a gentle way about him. He was soft-spoken, empathetic, friendly, and had a great sense of humour. He was also very knowledgeable and always willing to learn new things. He believed that life is beautiful, should be cherished as a gift from Jehovah, and should be enjoyed.

He treated everyone equally, regardless of background or status, and he strongly believed in unity. He disliked prejudice and always encouraged peace and unity. He also had a warm relationship with people in his community and was always ready to guide, support, and uplift others.

His Spiritual Life

Pa Julius Omowaiye was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1968, while attending Waigbo Congregation. He attended several congregations in the Lagos area. His congregation members described him as a kind, wise and spiritually mature Christian who always strived to show loving concern and interest in helping others learn about Jehovah, His Son Christ Jesus, God's Kingdom, and His purpose for the world of obedient mankind.

Above all, Pa Julius Omowaiye loved Jehovah. His life reflected a deep and genuine appreciation for the truth according to God's word, the Bible. Like some faithful servants of Jehovah, Baba experienced moments in life where he

Where he stepped away from the truth, but what stood out was his humility and honesty in finding his way back to Jehovah's organisation. From that point onward, his love for Jehovah and his dedication to spiritual things became even more evident to all who knew him. Baba's love for God Jehovah kept growing stronger over the years as he experienced Jehovah's love in his life and the lives of others. Even after it became increasingly difficult to walk from door to door or stand and offer literature, Pa Julius Omowaiye buddied up with his wife Mojisola Omowaiye to tell others about the Bible using the Witnessing Cart. Drawing strength from his faith and love for God, they both spent hours preaching using the cart and making return visits to those interested in learning about the hope for a new world.

To be close to Pa Julius Omowaiye meant you witnessed a skilled conversationalist, with an unparalleled ability to connect and relate to anyone he met. Pa Julius Omowaiye's hospitality and infectious laughter matched his welcoming discussions. Regardless of how any conversation began, it usually ended the same way - a future perfect paradise with no sin, pain, or death. Until his death, he served faithfully as an elder in Olorunshogo Congregation (Ibafo) and supported many congregations over the years.

· Congregations Served: Olorunshogo (Ibafo), Unity (Orimerunmu), Bata (Ojota), Mile 12 (Mile 12), Waigbo (Mushin)

Faithful Service and Hope

Pa Julius Omowaiye was admired for his strong faith, dedication, and the way he encouraged others spiritually. He also participated in convention dramas, including the "Love Never Fails" convention in 2019, and handled several convention assignments. One of the things he often said was, "Never leave Jehovah. Serve Him with a complete heart full of obedience." Sadly, on Sunday, February 15, 2026, Pa Julius Omowaiye fell asleep in death.

Pa Julius Omowaiye leaves to cherish his memory his Beloved Wife, Mrs Mojisola Omowaiye; nine children; seventeen grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; seven siblings (Gideon Omowaye, Kike Omakun, Oluwole Titus Omowaye [a.k.a Jeje City], Isaac Omowaye, Taye Omowaye, Kehinde Timothy Ale and Idowu Omowaye Adeniji) and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, in-laws and other relatives and dear Friends.

His family and friends derive comfort from one of his favourite scriptures, Acts 24: 15, which says, "I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection..." With this hope, they look forward to the beautiful time when they will welcome him back in Paradise.

You were such a good and very understanding husband, loving, caring and very devoted in caring for your household. You were a good provider who gives selflessly, your qualities such as, mercy, compassion, self sacrifice, self willingness and selflessness as well as thoughtfulness stand you out among many husbands and am grateful and happy having you as my husband, indeed you were the best husband I could ever pray for, your care of me and our children, testify your genuineness, dedication, and devotion, showing to all that you value your family. Rest on, my husband, my friend – Mrs Omowaye

Daddy, words could not be enough to say how much you mean to me. Even in the face of life, Dad, I love you from the deepest of my heart, and you will always be in my heart. – Funmilayo

Dear Dad, even though you have gone to rest, your love and memories continue to live in my heart. You were a pillar of strength, wisdom, and kindness. You will always be in my heart. – Foluso

A gem, more than a gem, laid to rest. While here, your heart of gold torched charcoals; your zest fanned embers into glowing flames. Love you, Dad! I can't think of a world without your kind of glow. But this is the current reality; I still keep looking forward. The memories we made, I treasure them still. Bye Papa. - Tunde

My Dad, my first hero. The world feels empty without you, and I miss you with every part of me. You are gone but never forgotten; every lesson, every piece of advice, every hug - I carry all of you with me, Dad. Thank you for being my father 🙏 – Love.

Daddy's faith in Jehovah shaped every aspect of his life. He lived by Bible principles, showing empathy, kindness, humility, and genuine love to everyone around him. He had an unforgettable sense of humour. There was never a dull moment with him. His laughter, jokes, and joyful spirit filled us with much happiness. His love for his family and friends knew no limits. I will always remember how he travelled long distances to visit me at university, simply to make sure I was doing well. He did the same for all my siblings, always putting our welfare above his own comfort. Those journeys were never an inconvenience to him; they were expressions of a father's heart. Looking back now, I realise those visits were his way of saying, "No matter where you are, you are never alone." Daddy taught us through words of wisdom rather than harsh punishment. His gentle guidance and patient counsel helped shape our lives and remain a gift we will always treasure. Daddy's love also extended beyond his family. He welcomed my friends as his own, caring for them with the same warmth and generosity he showed us. My Dad was a very special man! I could not have prayed for a better Dad. His loyal love, faith, and kindness will remain in our hearts forever. I carry you in my heart and look forward with hope to the day Jehovah's promise of resurrection brings us together again. – Faith.

Comments

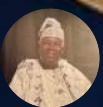

Daddy, you were the epitome of strength, grit, humility, compassion, and dedication to Jehovah. You gave me listening ears, showed me understanding, and taught me to selflessly love others. My rock, my voice of reason; losing you to death feels so lonely, but I remain comforted by Jehovah till I see you soon. Bye for now, 'Abami ayiye, Ore mi, Alabaro mi'. — Peace.

My dad was a caring, considerate, and loving man — truly selfless in every way. He loved others more than he loved himself, always putting the needs of those around him first. He was accommodating and ensured that everyone had a voice where he was concerned. From him, I learned accountability, responsibility, resourcefulness, and the importance of paying attention to details. He was a man who embraced people from all walks of life, never tribalistic, always welcoming. He gave me practical advice that guided me to make my own decisions and taught me principles that have stood the test of time. His wisdom was simple yet profound — like the need to count money twice, reminding me always to pay attention to the little things. Daddy helped me put life into perspective. His guidance shaped me, his love strengthened me, and his example continues to inspire me. I am more than grateful to have had you as my father, and I will forever cherish the lessons you taught and the love you gave. - Kehinde

You lived your life like my favorite Bible character - David, a man agreeable to Jehovah's heart. You never stopped running the race for life despite setbacks. (1 Cor 9:24b) Thank you for passing on the baton of righteousness to me. — Samuel.

After 92 beautiful years, Dad's life was a testament of love, generosity, and kindness that will forever remain a guiding light in my life. I will never forget the big hug he gave me when he heard that, at just 10 years old, I had given my pocket money to a widow, so she could have a meal. His joy and pride in that moment showed me the value he placed on compassion and caring for others. Daddy was intentional about raising me. In my early years, he would sit with me every evening to review my schoolwork, patiently teaching me the lessons I had missed in class and ensuring that I understood and grew. Those moments shaped my discipline, my confidence, and the person I have become. He was a father who cared deeply and loved quietly but consistently. He always wanted to know that I was fine, looked forward to bringing me little gifts from his many travels, and never failed to give me the last chunk of his meat during dinner. That simple gesture was his way of saying, "You matter." I will forever cherish his love, his sacrifices, and the beautiful memories he gave me. — Dapo.

"Never leave Jehovah." Those were your daily words to me, Grandpa. I'll always hold them close to my heart. Now, they're my daily reminder. Knowing you've run a fine race strengthens my resolve to faithfully run mine too, with the hope of seeing you again in Paradise. Until then, I'll never leave Jehovah. — Mercy

Our beloved Grandpa, Mr. Julius Oladimeji Omowaye, was a loving, generous, and God-fearing man whose life touched everyone around him. He was more than a grandfather to us—he was a mentor, a teacher, and a guide who instilled in us the values of discipline, hard work, kindness, and love for Jehovah. His generosity knew no bounds, and he found joy in giving, encouraging, and caring for others. The lessons he taught us and the love he showed will remain in our hearts forever. Though we deeply miss him, we are comforted by Jehovah's promise of the resurrection and look forward to the joyful day when we will welcome him back. Until then, we will cherish his memory and strive to live by the wonderful example he set. —

Grandchildren

Daddy Omowaye, you were very good to me; your advice and your mentoring can never be forgotten. Your directives strengthen me physically, morally, financially, and above all spiritually. I am blessed to have you as a father — Tosin

Whatever conversation you have with Daddy, Jehovah is always at the forefront. A devoted, God-fearing father to all, irrespective of who you are. When he gives you advice, it's offered with compassion that gives you the inner calm and confidence that you have nothing to worry about when you put all your trust in Jehovah. As a receiver of such loving care, kindness, empathy, and understanding, you'd believe me when I say it is indeed an irreplaceable loss that only Almighty Jehovah God, our Heavenly Father, can soothe the pain. Rest assured, Daddy remains alive in Jah's memory, of which fact I have the utmost confidence we will see him again when Jehovah awakens him from his sleep. All praise and honour be to Jehovah God for this wonderful promise soon to be fulfilled. I'm so looking forward to hearing the original version from Daddy; the story behind the words

“kete re lo jôra-jôra”. - Mojisola

Knowing my Daddy was one of the greatest blessings in my life. You showed me what it means to have a loving and caring father. I think about you always, and I still tell my children about you. You have never been forgotten, and you never will. I hold you close within my heart, and there you will always remain until the day I see you again in the New World to come—Jehovah's Paradise.

Forever loved. Forever remembered. — Arinola

We will continue to take solace in the resurrection hope, when HE will call, and the dead shall answer — Ademola

Daddy was not just a father-in-law to me. He was my dad and my friend. I still remember what Daddy told me after I married into the family. He said that he did not have a son-in-law, that I was his son. And yes, he lived up to it. He was someone I could open my heart to, and from whom I received mature, fatherly advice and direction. His humble and unassuming spirit was a joy to see and feel, and a big lesson to learn from. Often, when I thanked Daddy for something he had done for me, he would turn to me and say, "My son, must you thank yourself?" With the hope of the resurrection, I know that this loss is momentary. I eagerly look forward to enjoying life again with Daddy in a peaceful new world, according to Jehovah's promise. — Friday

Daddy, you were wisdom and goodwill personified... I appreciate you beyond words can explain. You taught me the priceless value of Godly wisdom, experience, and resourcefulness that outlive life.... You may not be here today, but your values are visible and will always be remembered. — Chris

If hard work and consistency could be human, they would undoubtedly look like you. Your unwavering dedication to both work and family is a legacy that can never be overlooked. You lived a life of purpose, integrity, and selfless sacrifice. It is no surprise that your name continues to open doors and command respect wherever it is mentioned. You earned that honour through years of honesty, diligence, and the positive impact you made on countless lives. One of the greatest gifts was your genuine love for the family. You always made it your priority to ensure everyone around you was doing well, growing, and becoming the very best version of themselves. At 92, you lived a life that many can only aspire to; a life filled with meaning, love, and lasting impact. Thank you for showing us what it truly means to live with purpose. — Blessing

Baba was a good Christian to reckon with. He was a father not just to his immediate family but also to the extended family and even to those who were not members of his family. One thing you can visibly observe when you join the family is an inseparable love instilled among Baba's children. Baba was an industrious person that alots of business organisations were ascribed, to his name E.g Waye Bakery, Omowaye Nur/Pry School. The Good shepherd Nur /Pry sch and many others. He was an accomplished Engineer whose work can be seen all-over Nigeria. Baba was an honest man who would always find /verify any case /information presented to him before accepting it as facts, baba would say "se eniye lo so be. Above all, Baba loved Jehovah fearlessly; he taught others to love Jehovah and do Jehovah's will. Today, we celebrate an Icon, an intellect, A reputable Engineer, an industrious personality. Baba Omowaye has indeed tread well on the surface of the earth. Rest on, Baba. - Rophina

From Rophina Omowaye: My big brother, PA Julius Oladimeji Omowaye, you brought me to Lagos, guided me every step of the way about what I need to do to become someone in life; that guidance makes me what I am today. I will miss you, dear brother. Sleep on till JEHOVAH wakes you up on the resurrection day. — Titus express my deepest and heartfelt condolences to Mummy and the entire family on the passing of our beloved Daddy. First, I want to sincerely appreciate Mummy—our grandma, great-grandma, and great-great-grandma—for standing faithfully beside Daddy throughout the years and for the love, care, and kindness they both extended to all of us.

Daddy believed in me when I was just beginning my journey in life. To mention one out of many, He was the very first person who gave me the money to rent my first apartment. That single act of kindness became part of the foundation upon which I built my future. I can never forget it. Even in his old age and despite his health challenges, Daddy and Mummy honored me with their presence at my first daughter's wedding. That gesture spoke volumes about their love, thoughtfulness, and the greatness of Daddy's heart. Daddy lived a life marked by generosity, humility, and compassion. Although he is no longer with us, the legacy of his kindness will continue to live in the hearts of everyone whose life he touched. May Jehovah continue to comfort Mummy, the children, and the entire family. We eagerly await the wonderful time when Jehovah will call, and Daddy will answer. - Femi

Daddy, as we all call him, meant different things to different people. To me, he was a mentor, a pillar of support, an amiable personality that brought hope to my life when I was hopeless. Words alone can not express my gratitude for all you did for me and my brother. Thank you so much, Daddy, for the love you showed us.— Abiodun

Our father, Julius O. Omowaye, was a good father with a big heart. He cared for all of his children, including those who weren't biological. You will be greatly missed. Rest well, Daddy. — Christopher

Our baba's life is a blessing. His memory a treasure. Now in Jehovah's care but forever in our hearts. Baba carried himself with a rare, genuine sense of humour and joy that lifted those around him. There is no sorrow today, only celebration because you are resting in the peace of Jehovah. The family of Kekere Ogun, Eye Lofinye and all ebi Idofin in USI Ekiti appreciate you because you left indelible marks in our lives: marks of kindness, marks of love, marks of care, marks of resilience, marks of wisdom, of hard work, marks of honesty, marks of fear of God, marks of Humble to be great, marks of unconditional love. Baba, all the family are thanking you for the countless lessons and unconditional love you showed to all. You taught us how to be strong, hard-working, kind, and to always put the family first. You are a mentor, a counsellor, a pillar of support all rolled into one. "We all know that your legacy will bloom forever in our hearts."

Appreciation

With deep appreciation

The Omowaye family wishes to express heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has supported us during this difficult time. Your prayers, words of comfort, visits, phone calls, messages, and acts of kindness have brought us strength and encouragement as we mourn the loss of our beloved father, grandfather, great grandfather and great great grandfather.

We sincerely thank our relatives, friends, neighbours, colleagues, and our dear brothers and sisters in the congregation for your prayers, comforting words, visits, messages, practical assistance, and every expression of love. Your compassion and generosity have been a great source of comfort. May Jehovah God richly bless you for your love, kindness, unwavering support and remember you for good – Nehemiah 5:19a.

We appreciate you more than words can say.
